IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Geneva Johnson Bell

Mrs. Bell, head of the English Department at Green Sea High School for fifteen years, was a good English teacher excelling in literature. She was an efficient and tireless worker in extra-curricular activities. In recent years, she gave unsparingly of herself as sponsor of the Green Sea Annual.

She was a friend to all students and was deeply interested in their development as individuals. She loved much and was loved by many.

MR. J. W. GIBSON

... a guide and counselor of learners and a great developer of citizens. A man whose academic achievement is equaled only by his genuine interest in his students, - whose formality, friendliness, wisdom and sincerity inspires those about him.

This dedication can serve only as a small tribute to him for his influence among those who know, respect and honor him.

A building of bricks and mortar--unfeeling, but a living body--working, creating, dreaming, hoping and laughing. United in spirit--seeking knowledge we give life to our school.

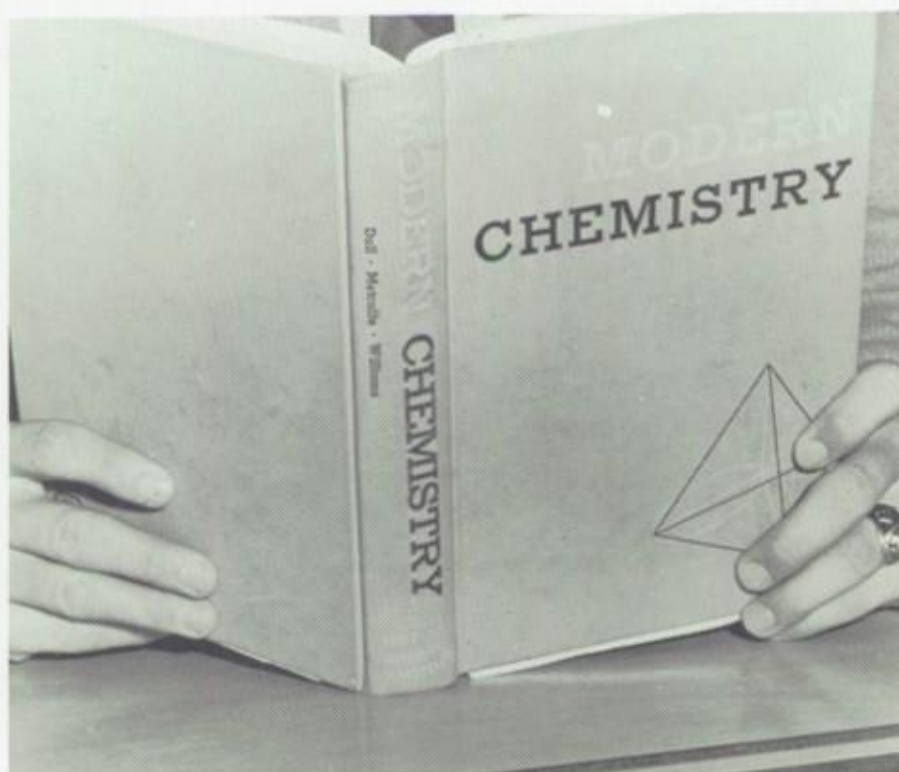

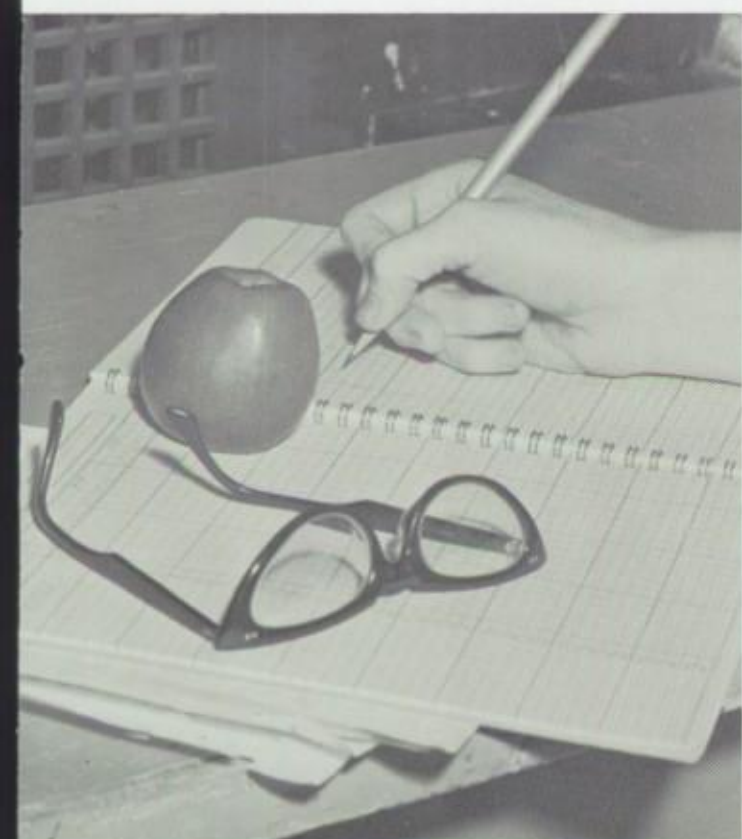

ALMA MATER

*Down South among white cotton fields,
There is a spot my memory fills,
And my heart with rapture always thrills
When I think of Green Sea there.
Green Sea, we love thee
Our home so dear;
Brings back in years to come
Thoughts of good cheer,
Green Sea, we love thee,
Present and past,
Our loyal love for thee will ever last.*

G. S. H.

One school . . . one student body - yet composed of individuals, each expressing his own distinctive characteristics . . . individuals together in spirit. This book puts the accent on youth and attempts to portray that spirit.

And there was light, noise and activity - - -

A new day . . . Life begins. Awake . . . welcome the sun. Arise from sleep, eager, anxious to work and to learn. The whole world is alive, caught up in the endless motion of Life. School - the fount of our knowledge, holds the key to wisdom. We are taught by teachers, friends and experiences. Each day brings discovery, adventure together with problems, uncertainties, and questions. So live today . . . achieve your goal.

Our world - - - serious thoughts and emotions

What we do and how we do it---these are our concerns. A strange mixture of confusion and contentment, of concentrated study---an intense desire for achievement. Moments of reflective joy, gentle words and thoughtful deeds 'midst golden memories of wonderful times.

Studying

There was spirit vibrating -

Spirit...
 That intangible force
 ... a feeling... ever-present,
 But always undefined.
 It is the fervent cheering of the crowd
 At a pep rally,
 Or the momentary hush
 Before the goal is won,
 It is the will to win
 And the consolation in defeat,
 There is spirit in earnest study
 And the glow of accomplishment on
 A student's face.
 But above all, spirit
 Is people...
 Their eagerness and enthusiasm
 ... activities and support,
 We...
 Create the spirit of our school.

Peeping

*go it really me - S.B. (Blod)
 Marie*

And we are on the threshold - - -

We are alive. As the years rush swiftly by, we can create a braver, newer world. Today's hazy dreams becoming tomorrow's realities. We must seek that elusive quality called happiness and never cease to try---to learn---and to grow, for each accomplishment is a new beginning as we strive onward ---toward new horizons.

STUDENT LIFE

Our world, make believe . . . magical . . .
a dream land . . . and yet, alive and real, composed of work, wishful thinking . . . beauty, precious moments today forming memories for tomorrow. Beauty . . . a shell, a case to hold a beautiful pearl within . . . it is the PER-FECTION of outward loveliness - the soul shining through its crystalline covering.

Marshals Represent Scholarship

The Marshals, who really participate as such during their Junior year, are selected by the principal's office solely by their scholastic grade average during their first three senior high school years. Denzel Suggs is Chief Marshal with the highest grades for these three years. Patricia Fowler has the second highest grades for these three years.

Four other students have maintained scholarship suitable to receive the honor of marshal. They served at the baccalaureate sermon and the commencement exercises of the year 1964. They are Barry Clemons, Jimmy Graham, Larry Holt, and Gayle Johnson.

Senior Order

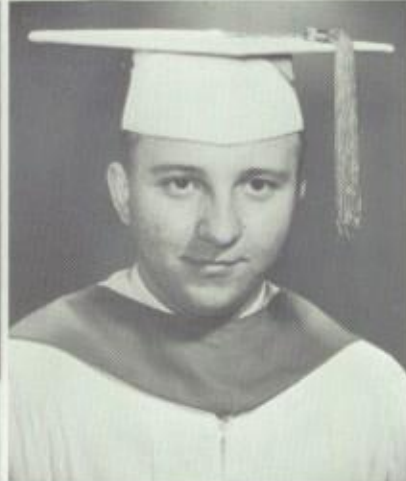

chosen by faculty

The Senior Order is the group of honor students chosen by the faculty. The first requisite to become a member is scholarship. Their service and loyalty to the school, their participation in clubs and extra-curricular activities, their overall attitudes and their personal character are major factors in their selection. They are distinguished at graduation by their scarlet honor hoods.

Miss D. A. R. - Patricia Fowler

Miss DAR is the title given to the senior girl who is considered by her class to be the best senior citizen. The senior class nominated three girls for this honor and the faculty chose one from those three. The faculty voted according to the dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism of the senior girl nominee. Patricia Fowler was chosen Miss DAR for the year of 1965.

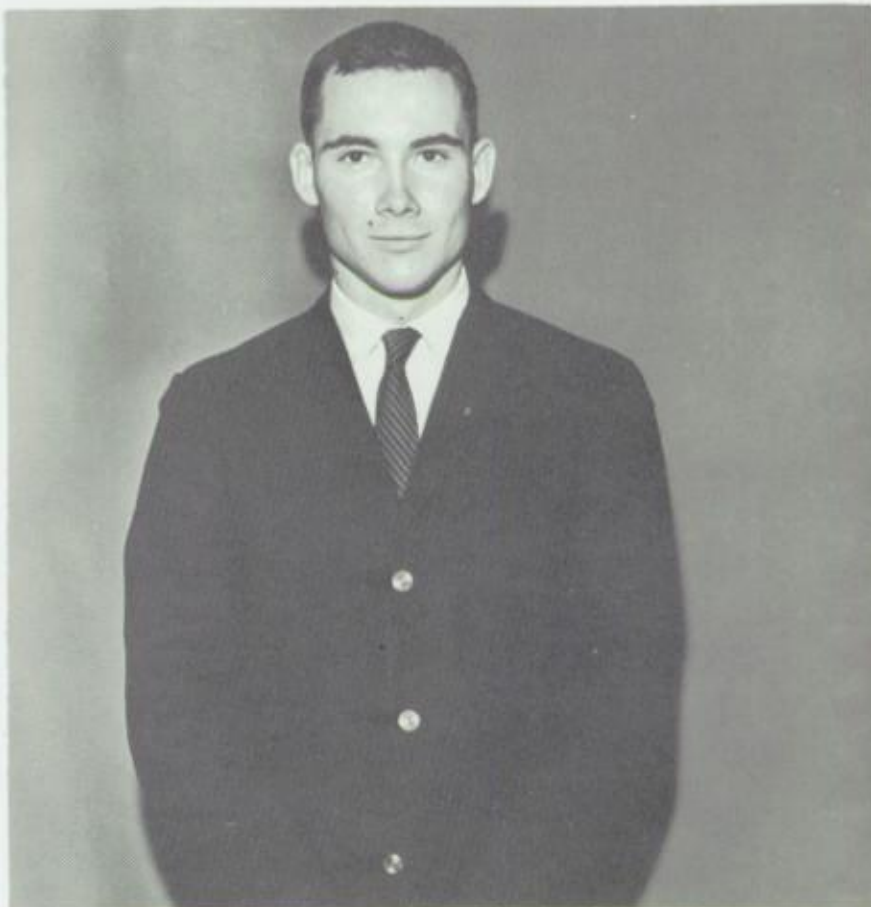

Miss Beta Club is the girl possessing Beta Club membership who truly deserves recognition. Miss Beta Club is elected by the Beta Club members according to loyalty and service, and outstanding scholarship, leadership, and personal attractiveness. Miss Beta Club for the year of 1965 is Gayle Johnson.

Miss Beta Club - Gayle Johnson

Mr. King Teen - Denzel Suggs

Mr. King Teen is a title given to the senior boy who possesses certain outstanding traits and a desire for candidacy for enrollment at Wofford College. The requirements for the achievement of this honor are outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and personal attractiveness. This person is chosen by the faculty. Mr. King Teen for the year of 1965 is Denzel Suggs.

The junior girl, who is considered by the faculty most outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and personal attractiveness, receives the honor and title of Miss Hi Miss. This person is given a weekend at Winthrop College during which she is given information, etc., about college life. Miss Hi Miss for the year 1965 is Gail Sarvis.

EXPRESSION

Various ORGANIZATIONS help to develop special interests. To belong to one of these groups is to fill an individual need - to assume responsibility in undertaking a job - to learn the vital meaning of co-operation - to gain invaluable experience by doing.

Student Council demonstrates leadership and work

Selected by their classmates, the Student Council is an indispensable part of our school life. In school unity and democracy, it is an important asset.

In the spring the student body elects the officers for the coming year. In the fall each class elects one member to serve on the council. This gives every student a representative voice in the student government.

Beta Club -

The onward march of scholarship

Bi-annually, students are tapped into the Beta Club. Membership in this club is sought by numerous ambitious students. Qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service are essential for initiation into this organization.

The Green Sea Betas participate in many activities during the year on local, county, and state levels. Each spring they attend the convention in Columbia. Belonging to this club is an honor and all members glow with rightful pride.

'65 Reflector

The door opens and closes---Perhaps from time to time one catches a glimpse---mountains of copy, layout sheets, schedules, and pictures. The window opens and closes---from within escapes sounds---tired laughter, low voices, maybe a sigh or sob. From the midst of this chaos comes the creation, the consolation, the atonement of it all - the Reflector of '65.

Greta Shelley and Jean Grainger find that typing copy can be a chore.

LECTOR

Entire staff meets in library. Sandra Powell, Carolyn Suggs, Wanda Strickland, Greta Shelley, Barry Clemons, Gail Sarvis, Doris Huggins, Jean Grainer, Joe Sarvis, Donald Lovette, Diane Clemons, and Ceci Floyd.

Library Club - They also serve who work among books

Library Club members spend many hours in the library learning library science. They work closely with the librarian as she teaches them the fundamentals of library work. They can assist a student in finding a book, finding reference material or using the card catalogue.

The Library Club holds regular meetings on a local and district level. Among their projects for the year were selling stationery and pennants.

One duty of club members is shelving books. Doris Mincey, Carolyn Suggs, Gail Jackson, Rosa Lee Strickland and Joyce Rabon take turns at this task.

The Library always has a fine bulletin board display. Here Larry Horne, Gail Sarvis, Elizabeth Bryant and Jeanette Hall check this week's board.

Spanish Club - Illustrates freedom of expression

"Mucho gusto en conoceria" was the watchword for the Spanish speaking members of "El Club Ocupado." This club promotes interest in the cultures of Spanish-speaking countries. Each six weeks the Spanish Club has a party and each year they present an assembly program that is very interesting and informative.

Club members enjoy modern equipment in the language lab. Using ear phones are club members Gail Sarvis, Barry Clemons, Jimmy Graham, Carolyn Suggs, Greta Shelley, Denzel Suggs, Larry Holt, Wanda Strickland, and Patricia Fowler.

Wanda, Barry and Greta try to read Spanish from board.

G. S. H. Glee Club Sings of Might and Majesty

The Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Sibyl Anderson, is an active organization. The members are chosen on the basis of voice quality, capability to sing harmony parts and the capacity to blend their voices well with others.

The Glee Club meets one period each day for rehearsal. They have a radio program once a year and they give the student body many impressive programs. They always present a beautiful Christmas Concert. Each year, the Glee Club ends an energetic year by providing music for the commencement exercises.

The Glee Club officers are: Jean Grainger, President; Dennis Suggs, Vice-President; Janis Williams, Secretary; Rebecca Johnson, Librarian.

The Glee Club practices informally on the stage.

Music Club - Technique and talent walk hand in hand

Students who take private piano lessons make up the Music Club. Each spring they have a recital which the entire student body enjoys. Their instructor, Mrs. DeRotha Hardwick also accompanies the Glee Club and plays for assemblies and various functions.

Jean practices while she waits for Mrs. Hardwick to arrive.

At Green Sea, Pamela is given a chance to display her talent.

Elonna hopes she remembers the notes correctly.

Future Farmers of America

Reap Honors in '64 - '65

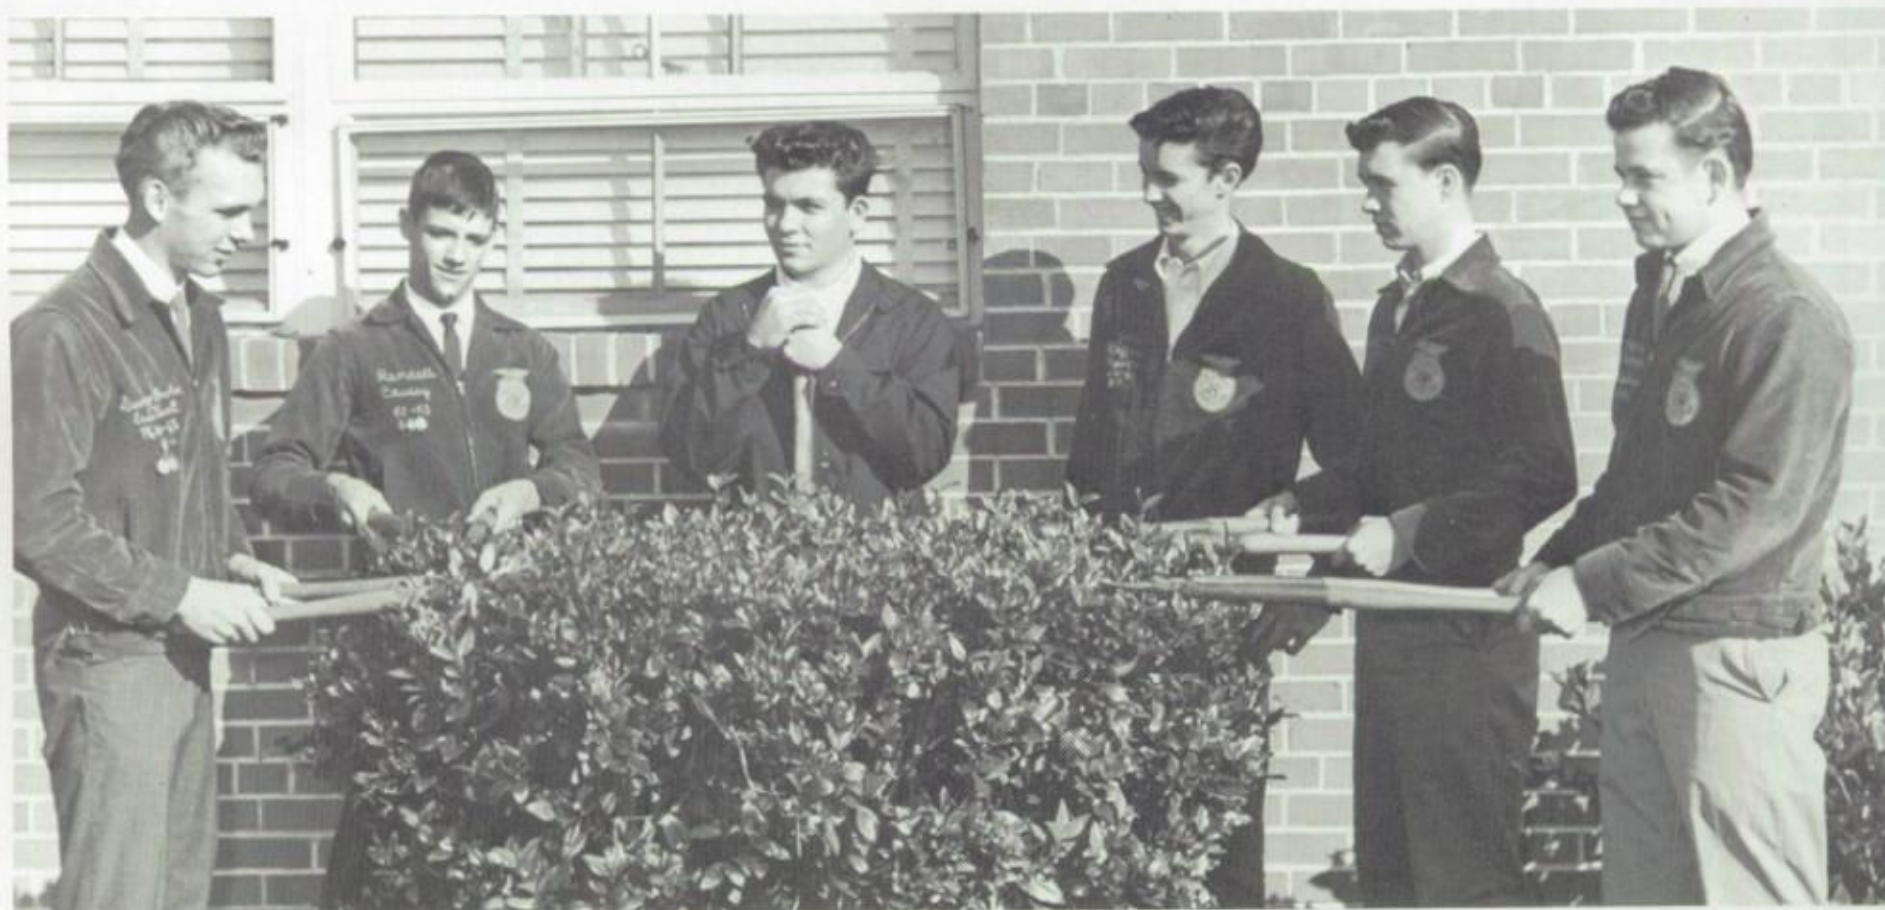

Many problems confront the Future Farmers. The members of this organization learn tobacco grading, soil judging, parliamentary procedure and public speaking. In addition to judging livestock the Green Sea Chapter learns breeding, raising and feeding techniques. They learn meat inspection and cutting. Members are versed in horticulture. The highlight of the year is the spring banquet.

Transportation Club

The Transportation Club, consisting of regular bus drivers, substitute drivers, and school bus patrols, has as its primary objective the promotion of safety and proper discipline on buses transporting students.

Responsible drivers are selected by test, dependability and a careful screening program.

To keep drivers constantly aware of their responsibility, a "point system" is used for any violation of rules.

Regular meetings and social events are used to create interest in the club.

This year's starting five includes three seniors

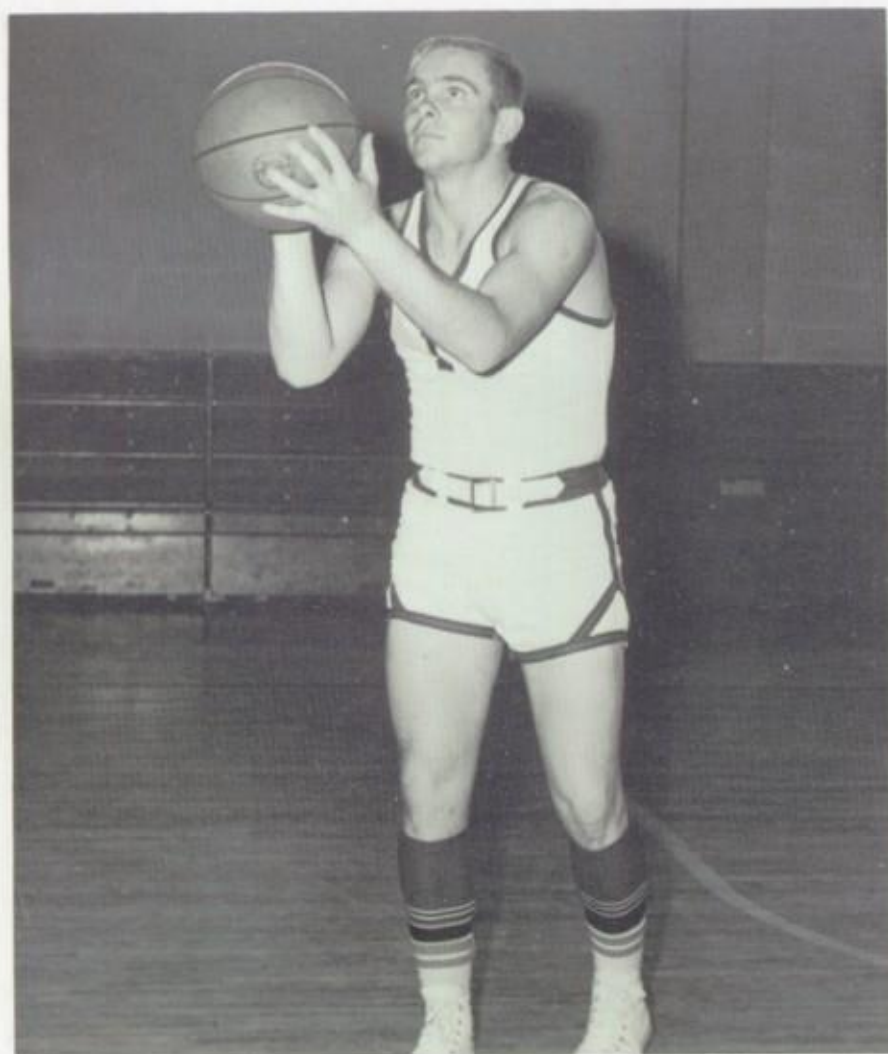

The Green Sea Wildcats began the 1964-65 basketball season with four straight victories. As the cage period progressed, they ran into teams much bigger and from schools higher than their class. The small team still attained a 6-5 won-lost record until the Christmas break. The early part of the season was dotted with close wins and even closer losses. The "fighting Wildcats" seemed to have a small amount of difficulty defeating teams from the larger schools. Although their record against schools with teams their size was one of which they should be quite proud. Throughout the entire 64-65 schedule the team, under the superb coaching of Pressley Best, had no difficulty scoring as they averaged over 49 points per game. The later part of the season seemed to pose a bit of a problem as the team finished their regular season games with a 9-11 won-lost record.

During the first round of the Lower 6-B Conference Tournament Green Sea defeated the second seeded Floyd's Eagles for a birth in the semifinals of the 6-B Conference Championship. In the finals of the Lower Conference the Wildcats met the Socastee Braves, who won the event in the last few minutes. This loss threw the Wildcats against the Hemingway Tigers in the semi-finals of the tournament. The much larger Hemingway team retained their record of being undefeated by downing the Green Sea team 96-59, which was the most points that had been scored against the Hemingway quintet in some time.

The senior girls begin the action

A cloud temporarily hung over Coach Best and his Wildcats as they were defeated 50-35 by Rains in the opening game of the season. However, they redeemed themselves in the next game with Britton's Neck by rendering a score of 30 to 16. Be as it may the next five games with Pleasant Hill, Aynor, Myrtle Beach, Conway and Socastee put a damper on everyone's high spirits only to be relinquished by another win over Britton's Neck and then a tie with Wampee. The two following games were lost to Floyds and Socastee. They returned from Christmas holidays with renewed vigor and even though they didn't defeat the Conway Tigeresses, they next played a great ballgame with the Loris Lionesses which ended in a draw. Although the Wildcats were not successful in their games with Rains and Aynor they delivered a win of 39 to 26 over Loris, their most ardent rivals. But again the Green Sea Wildcats were confronted with competition from Myrtle Beach and Floyds which proved to be stronger than theirs. Everything seemed to look brighter, however, in the next game when they walked away from Wampee with another tie. Pleasant Hill also upset the Wildcats with a 47 to 36 victory in their closing game of the regular season. In the Upper District Conference Green Sea was thrown into the position to play Socastee once more and they were beaten 56 to 39.

Even though the Green Sea Wildcats had an irregular season, they have improved under the coaching of Pressley Best and have maintained an average of 29 points per ballgame.

ACADEMICS

Learning . . . knowledge . . . wisdom . . . these qualities form the cornerstones of our young lives, acquired through concentrated STUDY exuberant discussions, homework, pop tests, and term papers. From the misty realms of ignorance we gain insight into new fields of chemistry, biology, English, geometry, and business. Through the aid of teachers, books, and friends, we envision more worlds to conquer, always keeping in mind that individuals and ideas are important, and that there is a vast difference between planning and doing. The more we learn brings the realization of how much more we need to know.

MR. GEORGE R. ALFORD
Superintendent, Area No. 4

Mr. Gibson and Mr. Alford work in harmony.

The most important phase of Green Sea's growth is contained in the renewed emphasis in high academic standards. Challenging goals for a new high in educational achievement have been set for us through the efforts of our fine administration. We gain from our excellent faculty long established truths as well as fresh perspectives. Opportunities are granted us to expand our growth in our studies through active participation in departmental work.

As Guidance Counselor, Mrs. Hipp is called on by many students to help with their problems.

Science depends on observation and experimentation

By keeping abreast of the latest developments in techniques, the Science Department attempts to make the student aware of the ever-increasing opportunities in scientific fields.

They are taught to search and explore the exciting world of science. Lab equipment enables them to see the decomposition of chemicals, the internal organs of animals, and micro-organisms which cannot be seen by the naked eye. This, together with the latest books and the most up-to-date methods, is a vital part of our science program.

Miss Christine McQueen aids students in science lab.

Mathematics unlocks secrets of the universe

Recent technical advancement in industry and accelerated scientific research have greatly increased the demand for qualified mathematicians. Furthermore, increased use of electronic computers has extended rather than limited the field of mathematical pursuit. Green Sea's math department seeks to provide instruction in the basic mathematical processes for all its students.

Trigonometry requires concentration.

MRS. GENEVA BELL
English

Lively interest is injected into English students by the enthusiastic participation of students on their projects. Their projects may include a research paper, some poetry made up by themselves, a collection of poems, or an original short story.

The juniors acquired a better understanding of the cultural history of our country through American Literature.

The senior English classes were kept busy deciphering Shakespeare, and perfecting their research papers.

"Now class!! We must learn to diagram these sentences," exclaimed Mrs. Sybil Anderson.

MRS. RUTH HUGHES
Spanish

The study of languages gives the student an insight into one's own language and also a broader understanding of other cultures in the world. By offering two years of Spanish, Green Sea prepares its students for college.

Wanda,

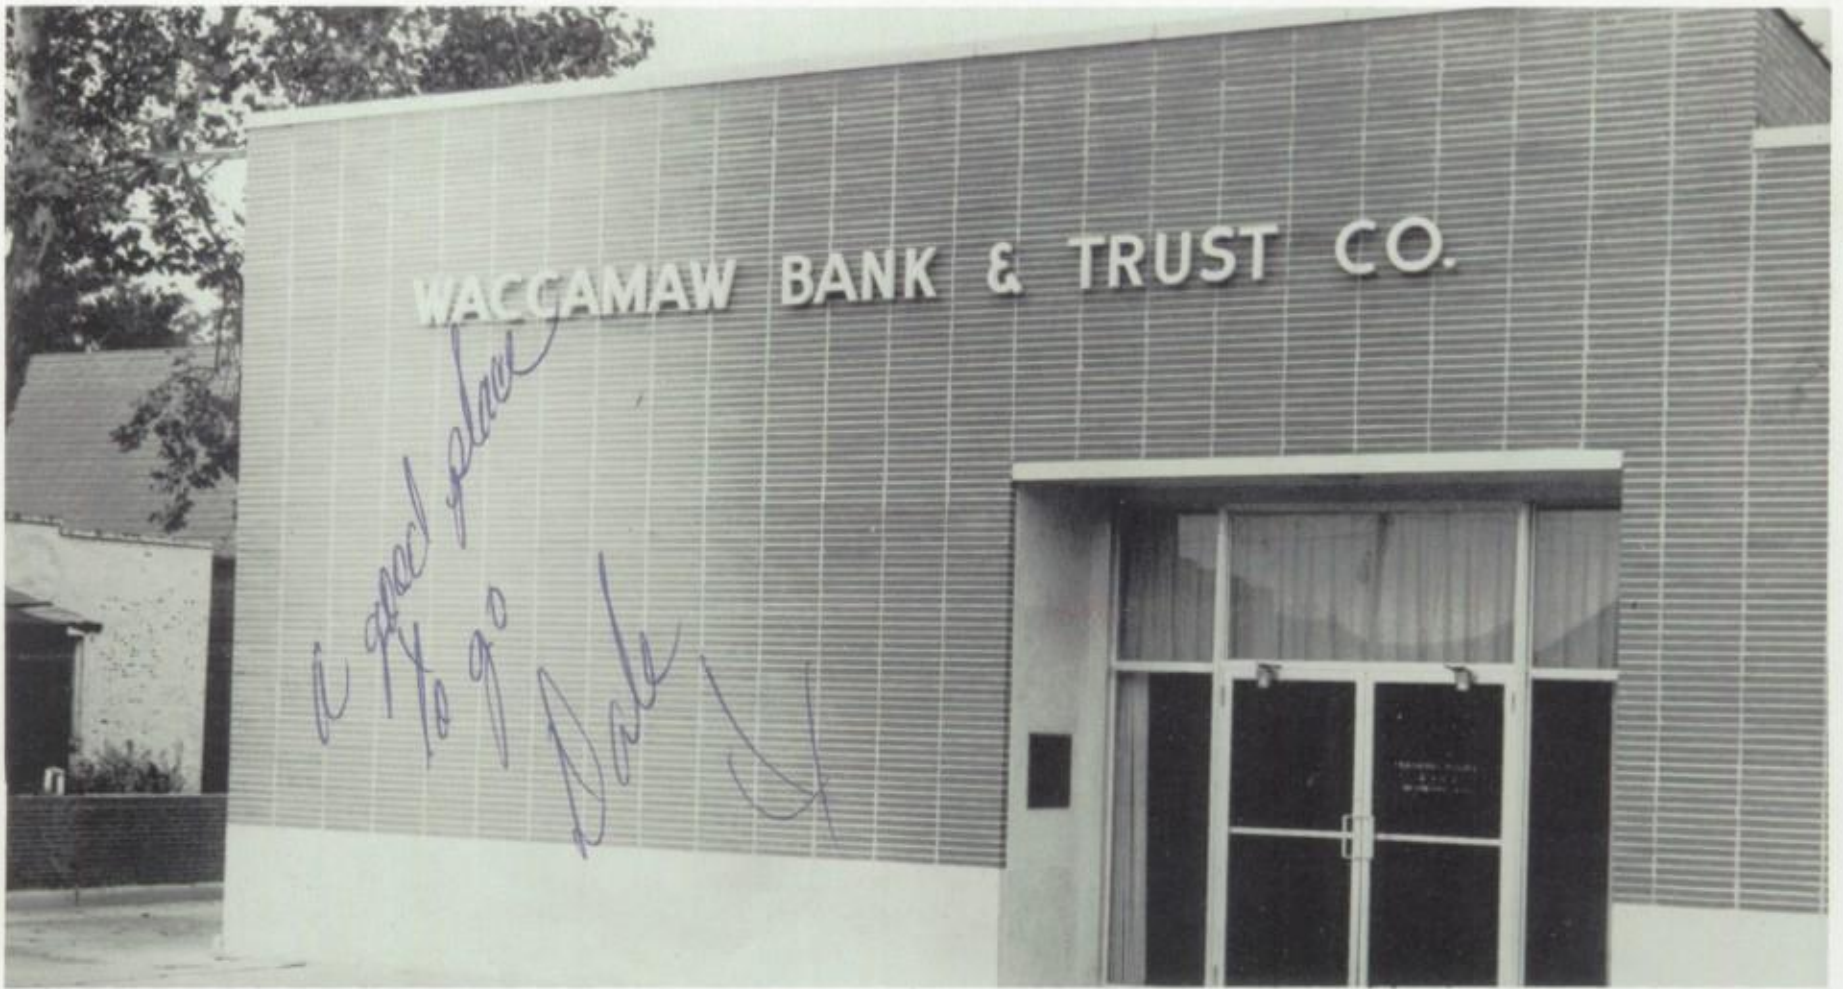

It does indeed give me great pleasure to sign your 1965 Reflector. You are a very sweet, cute, & friendly girl that I love ~~dearly~~^{very} dearly. We really have had some good times this year haven't we? I hope we will always be friends. May you always be a success in everything that you try to do or be. Best Wishes to you and yours.

ADVERTISEMENTS

We enter the adult world of BUSINESS. Our first job . . . work . . . responsibility . . . soliciting ads . . . earning and spending our first dollars we learn to appreciate the value of its creation. Enticed by advertising we view the various goods, and choose carefully from the glittering displays in the store windows before us. And each of us, in a small way - through purchasing or producing - becomes an integral part of our community.

EPILOGUE

The calendar tells us that it is time to say good bye.

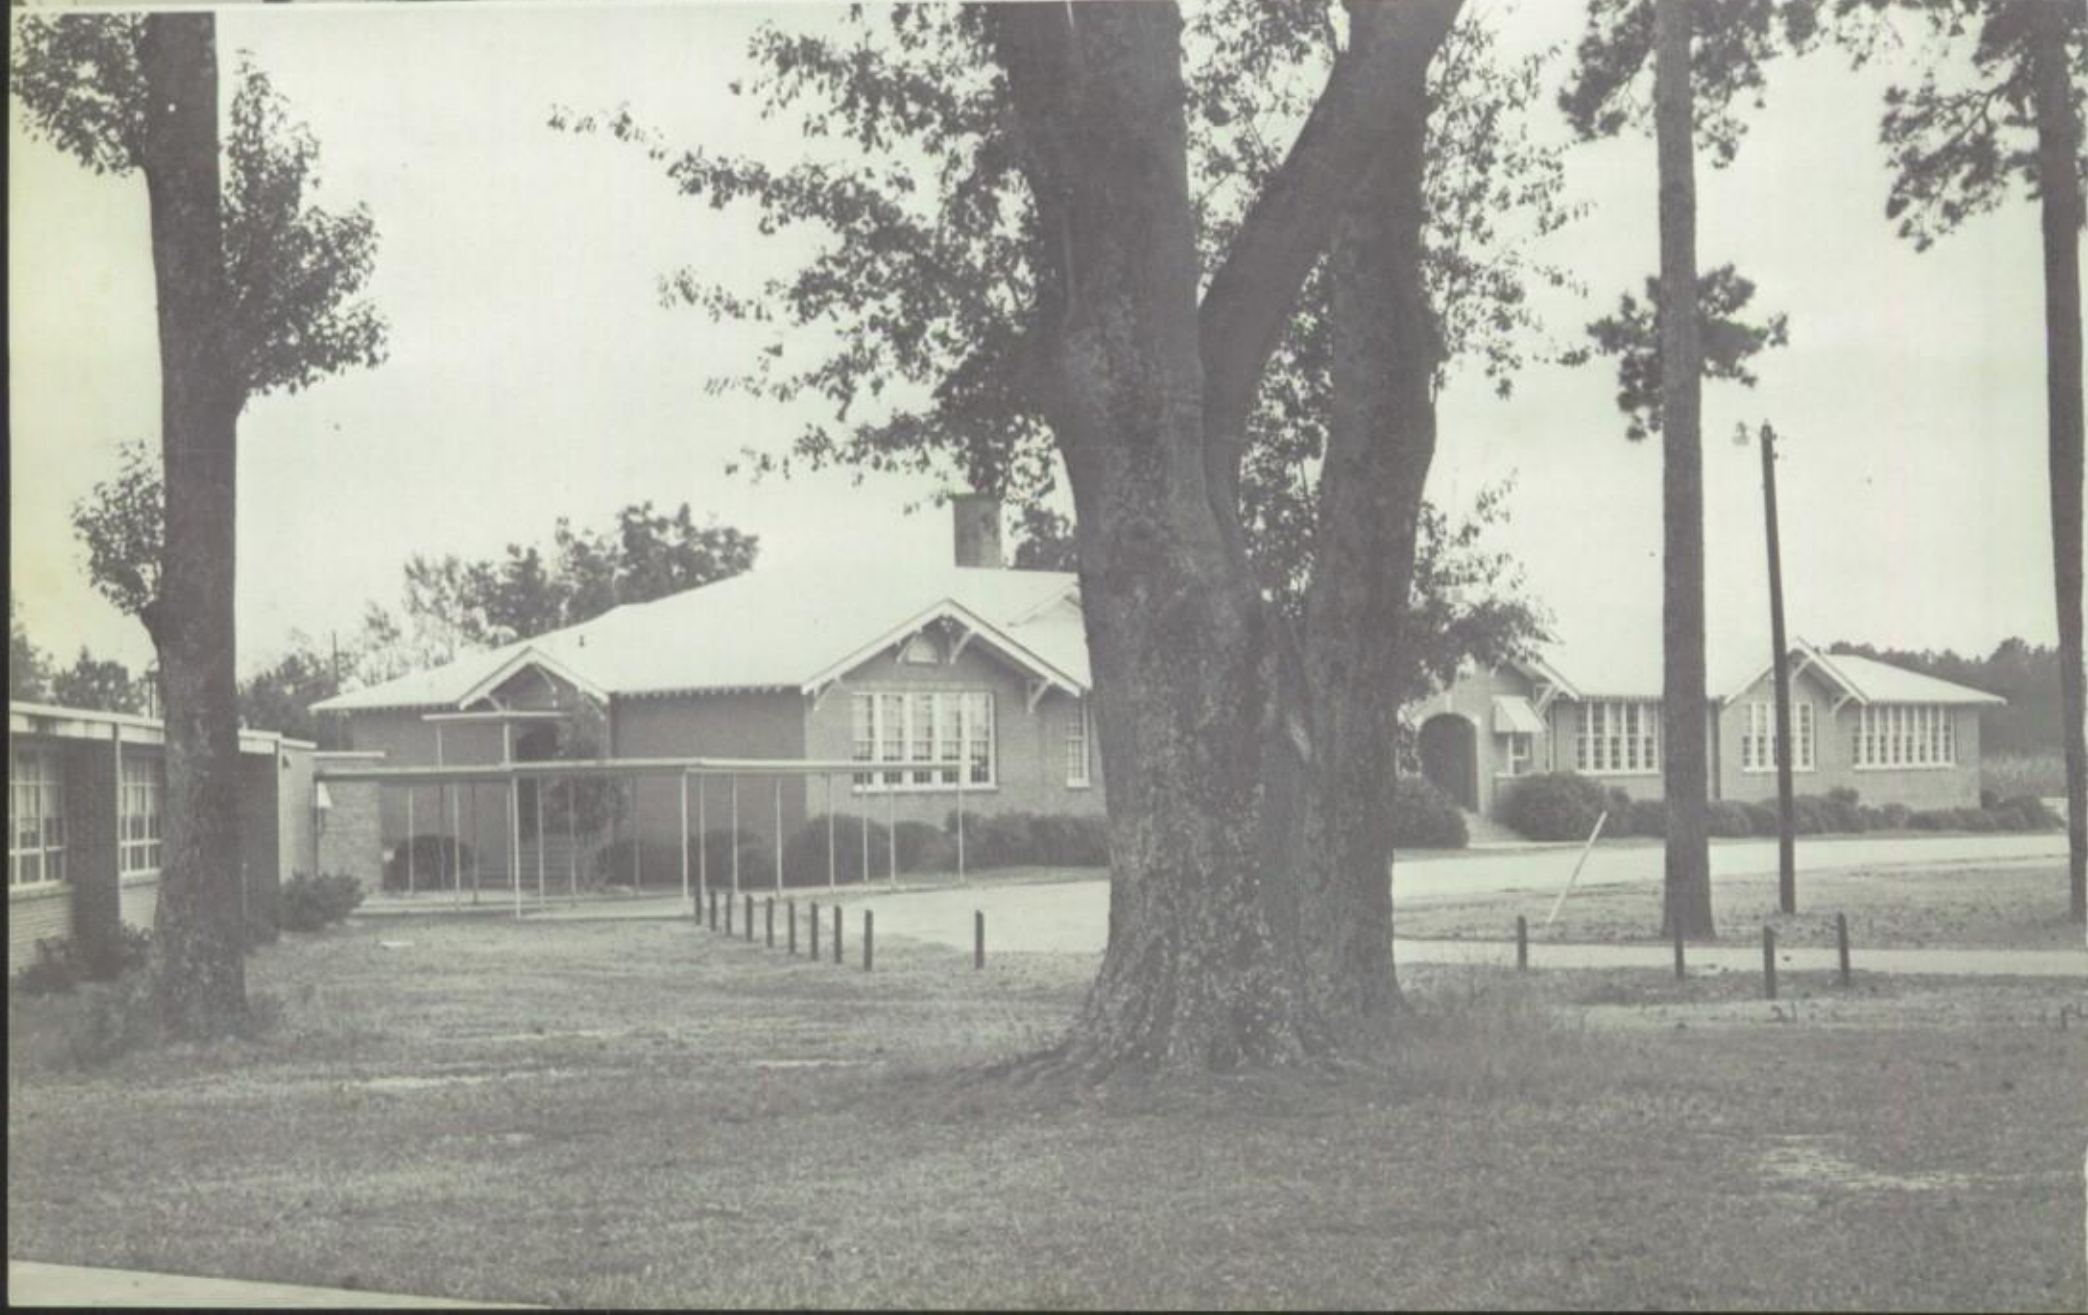

JUNE 1965
SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
		1 1978 John Moulford	2 1949 Thomas Hardy	3	4	5
6	7 1940 Elizabeth Brown	8	9	10	11 1944 Gerard Mervin Huggins	12
13 1965 W. B. Yeats	14 Flag Day	15	16	17 1871 James Whitson Johnson	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26 1940 Pearl Buck
27	28	29	30

In the shadows of the past, a senior stands waiting. In essence, she is every student who has walked the halls, struggled to learn, sat in the engulfing dark of an assembly audience, pushed forward in the crush of the lunchroom and yelled the Wildcats to victory.

EPILOGUE

Now it is finished, - the year of the beatles, the jerk, fun and hard work. The people are gone... lights are out... doors are closed and our school year is over. The seniors left for college or work... the juniors became seniors... the sophomores became juniors and we completed a chapter in the great book of life. A new class will arrive and a new school year begin in the fall but memories will linger forever of... GSH... 1965.

Wanda,
It has been a pleasure coming to school with you this year. We sure did have fun at the Fair didn't we. But wish you a nice and all that mess. You're a nice sweet & cute girl, stay that way. Love always
Sharon
The Lord bless and keep you always. Best wishes and lots of luck.

Wanda

Wanda,

It gives me great pleasure to sign your 1965 year book.
I have really enjoyed coming to school with you all these years.
Especially last year and this year. We have really had some wonderful times together. I think you are very pretty and real nice. You are one of the best friends I have ever had. I wish you the best of everything now and always.

Love,
Shelvia

Wanda,

It has been fun going to school with a girl like you. I am really honored that you want me to sign your year book. (Thank you for thinking enough of me to sign it) You are a sweet, adorable, lovable, kind, sweet
a lot of you. I like you very much.
I will see you and I believe this year.
Love,
Nancy
